The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth less than their original cost and current performance may be lower than the performance quoted. Returns greater than one year are average annual total returns. All information is as of the date shown. Investment performance reflects the Investment Manager's voluntary undertaking to limit ongoing charges during certain periods. In the absence of such voluntary undertaking, total return would be reduced. MSCI has not approved, reviewed or produced this report, makes no express or implied warranties or representations and is not liable whatsoever for any data in the report. You may not redistribute the MSCI data or use it as a basis for other indices or investment products. Returns greater than one year are annualized.

Market commentary

Equity markets continued to ascend in March amid a steady progression in vaccination rollouts, historically high levels of fiscal and monetary accommodation, and renewed optimism in the outlook for global growth. The top performing markets in our investable universe were Saudi Arabia, Ireland, Chile, Mexico, and Norway. The worst performing markets were Turkey, Peru, Egypt, China, and Indonesia. The best performing sectors in the MSCI ACWI Index ("Index") were utilities, consumer staples, and industrials. The worst performing sectors were communication services, information technology, and consumer discretionary.

The Causeway Global Value UCITS Fund ("Fund") outperformed the Index during the month, due primarily to stock selection. Fund holdings in the software & services, automobiles & components, insurance, pharmaceuticals & biotechnology, and utilities industry groups contributed to relative performance. Holdings in the semiconductors & semi equipment, technology hardware & equipment, and capital goods industry groups, along with an overweight position in the consumer services industry group and an underweight position in the food beverage & tobacco industry group, offset some of the outperformance compared to the Index. The top contributor to return was automobile manufacturer, Volkswagen AG (Germany). Other notable contributors included business services provider, Concentrix Corp. (United States), mortgage insurance provider, Essent Group (United States), utilities provider, Exelon Corp. (United States), and HVAC manufacturer, Carrier Global Corp. (United States). The largest detractor was products & services provider for the electronic components industry, SK hynix, Inc. (South Korea). Additional notable detractors included jet engine manufacturer, Rolls-Royce Holdings Plc (United Kingdom), electronic components manufacturer, Murata Manufacturing Co. Ltd. (Japan), semiconductor company, Infineon Technologies AG (Germany), and financial services provided, Credit Suisse Group AG (Switzerland).

Investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. International investing may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuations in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from social, economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. The Fund is also subject to, among other risks, market fluctuations and security selection risk, and value stock risk. Current and future securities exposures are subject to risk.

The MSCI ACWI Index (Gross) is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index, designed to measure the equity market performance of developed and emerging markets, consisting of 23 developed country indices, including the U.S, and 26 emerging market country indices. The Index is gross of withholding taxes, assumes reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, and assumes no management, custody, transaction or other expenses. The Fund's value discipline may prevent or restrict investment in major stocks in the benchmark index. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. Holdings are subject to change. There is no assurance that any securities exposures mentioned will remain in or out of the Fund.
