Causeway Emerging Markets UCITS Fund, a sub-fund of Causeway Funds plc, USD Accumulation Shares (ISIN: IE00BWT3P316)

The Fund is managed by Carne Global Fund Managers (Ireland) Limited (the "Manager")

Objectives and Investment Policy

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek long-term growth of capital in emerging markets.

Investment Strategy

The Fund is actively managed in reference to a benchmark. The Investment Manager seeks to identify a portfolio of investments that will outperform the MSCI Emerging Markets Index. The Fund normally invests at least 80% of its total assets in equity securities of companies in emerging markets and other investments that are tied economically to emerging markets, such as common stock, preferred and preference stock, legal structures known as variable interest entities (though limited to investments in depositary receipts and H-Shares listed or traded on a Recognised Market), depositary receipts, real estate investment trusts and exchange-traded funds ("ETFs") that invest in emerging markets securities. The Fund considers a country to be an emerging market if the country is included in the MSCI Emerging Markets Index.

The Investment Manager uses a quantitative investment approach to purchase and sell investments for the Fund. The Investment Manager's quantitative investment approach uses a proprietary computer model that analyses financial data or "factors" to seek to identify patterns from historical data to assist in selecting investments. The model currently analyses "stock-specific" factors relating to valuation, growth, technical indicators (such as stock price momentum), competitive strength, and "top down" factors relating to macroeconomics, currency, country and economic sector. Currently, the valuation factor category receives the highest overall weight in the model and stock-specific factors comprise approximately 75% of the score for a company. For each stock, the relative weight assigned to each stock-specific factor differs depending on its classification (for example, value, growth, momentum, capitalisation or other classifications). In addition to its quantitative research, the Investment Manager's fundamental research analysts review certain of the quantitative outputs to attempt to identify and address special issues, such as significant corporate actions or management changes, which are difficult to detect quantitatively.

The Fund invests in companies in ten or more emerging markets. If the Fund invests in a country, the percentage of the Fund's total assets attributable to that country is not expected to be greater than the weight of that country as represented in the MSCI Emerging Markets Index, plus 5 percentage points, or less than the weight of that country in the MSCI Emerging Markets Index minus 5 percentage points. At the discretion of the Investment Manager, the Fund may invest in the aggregate up to 10% of total assets in companies in frontier markets. Individual holdings are not benchmark constrained.

The Fund generally invests in companies with market capitalisations of US$500 million or greater at the time of investment and may invest in a wide range of industries. The Fund may use futures contracts based on global equity markets indices to "equitize cash" with exposures to emerging markets.

For accumulation share classes, dividends will not be paid and income attributable to these classes will be automatically reinvested in the Fund and reflected in the relevant classes' Net Asset Value per share.

For distributing share classes it is intended that an annual dividend of the net income of the Fund attributable to these classes will be paid.

For more information about the Fund's investment policy, see "Investment Objectives, Policies and Restrictions" in the Fund's Prospectus and "Investment Objective" and "Investment Strategy" in the Fund's Supplement, available at www.causewaycap.com/non-us-investors.

Risk and Reward Profile

These numbers rate how the Fund may perform and the risk of losing some or all of your capital. Generally the potential for higher gains also means a larger risk of losses. The lowest category does not mean a risk free investment.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

This Fund is ranked at 6 because funds of this type have experienced high rises and falls in value in the past.

Certain Other risks:

Market fluctuations and security selection risk. If the value of the Fund's investments goes down, you may lose money. Global economies are increasingly interconnected, and political, economic and other conditions and events (including, but not limited to, natural disasters, pandemics, epidemics, and social unrest) in one country or region might adversely impact a different country or region. Furthermore, the occurrence of severe weather or geological events, fires, floods, earthquakes, climate change or other natural or man-made disasters, outbreaks of disease, epidemics and pandemics, malicious acts, cyber-attacks or terrorist acts, among other events, could adversely impact the performance of the Fund. These events may result in, among other consequences, closing borders, exchange closures, health screenings, healthcare service delays, quarantines, cancellations, supply chain disruptions, lower consumer demand, market volatility and general uncertainty. These events could adversely impact issuers, markets and economies over the short- and long-term, including in ways that cannot necessarily be foreseen. The Fund could be negatively impacted if the value of a portfolio holding were harmed by political or economic conditions or events. Moreover, negative political and economic conditions and events could disrupt the processes necessary for the Fund's operations. We cannot guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

Foreign and emerging markets security risk. The value of the Fund's securities may be affected by social, political and economic developments and laws relating to foreign investment, as well as foreign currency exchange rates. The extent of economic development, political stability, market depth, infrastructure, capitalization and regulatory oversight in emerging markets can be less than in more developed foreign markets. Other risks include trading, settlement, custodial, and other operational risks; withholding or other taxes; and the less stringent investor protection and disclosure standards of some foreign markets. All of these factors can make emerging markets securities less liquid, more volatile and harder to value. These risks are enhanced for investments in smaller capitalization companies.

Quantitative risk. Data for emerging markets companies may be less available, less accurate and/or less current than data for developed markets companies. The Investment Manager's quantitative processes and stock selection can be adversely affected if it relies on erroneous or outdated data. Any errors in the Investment Manager's quantitative methods may adversely affect the Fund's performance. In addition, securities selected using quantitative analysis can perform differently from the market as a whole.

Derivatives risk. Futures contracts are derivative instruments which can be volatile and involve special risks including leverage risk and basis risk.
